Dear Mr. Hart,

Coming from you, the offer to let Jim Garrison deny he is still beating his wife is indeed decent.

That a half-hour of the most dubious "experts", all participants rather than reporters, pretending to represent the press, and a half-hour of self defence by Garrison "covers the trial properly and exhausts the subject" is as apt an expression of the miserable failure of the mis-named "Educational TV" as has yet been penned.

Without doubt, as you say, you actually do believe this. That is an even more disturbing thing than not meaning it.

Do take a good look at your license, your charter -and the mirror.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

P.S. If you have any transcripts, I'd like to read them.

While I would not expect to learn anything about the trial, I might about other things. Should you want them returned, I will do so.
